

PROMOTE MENTAL HEALTH PARITY COMPLIANCE ACROSS YOUR ORGANIZATION

URAC offers the country's only accreditation for mental health parity. Federal and state mental health parity requirements can be overwhelming. If your organization is non-compliant, it can face fines in the millions of dollars and lose key clients along the way. URAC's Mental Health Parity Program demonstrates that you are serious about complying with parity requirements and provides value to your organization, your partners and your members.

Parity Compliance Guide

- Single-source dictionary of parity requirements
- Aggregated and organized by subject matter
- Includes statute, regulatory and sub-regulatory information in one place
- Can save organizations hours of time searching reports, preambles, regulations, etc.
- Provides practical guidance on how to ensure compliance

ParityManager™ Software

- Identifies and classifies covered benefits
- Allows users to test financial requirements and QTLs to prepare for parity audit
- Collects and organizes data to perform comparability and stringency testing for NQTLs
- Automatically identifies a wide range of per se parity violations
- Generates feedback loops, reports and analysis to guide parity compliance

URAC Parity Accreditation

- Shows regulators and purchasers you meet federal and state parity requirements
- Independently validates your organization's ability to meet parity requirements
- Provides ratable elements to assess plan's policies, procedures and practices to meet government audit via URAC's expertly developed standards
- Awards URAC accreditation seal and recognition upon completion

URAC's Mental Health Parity Program can increase your competitive advantage in the market and positions your organization as a leader. It can lead to improved health outcomes and member experiences across your organization and builds a culture of true mental health equity within your organization.

De'Anna Hardin
dhardin@urac.org
202-962-8810